

[9]. Its thinner needle size has corresponded with fewer incidents of patient trauma and discomfort. Automatic injectors, magnification devices, needle-free injectors, insulin ports, needle safety guards, cooler bags and other dosing aids are said to aid patient comfort in drug delivery. Dosing aids are essential to be used in visually impaired diabetic patients on the use of insulin in order to prevent any side effects