

Surgery is an intricate medical specialty that has evolved over time. The total number of procedures performed in orthopedics, neurosurgery, cardiovascular, general surgery, urology, and other surgical specialties has increased significantly. This growth is driven by the increasing number of doctors and technicians across the world to come to the future.

healthy lifestyle habits and rise in obese pediatric increase in obesity. Obesity is a growing problem in Africa.