

Respite Model of Palliative Care for Advanced Cancer in India: Development and Evaluation of Effectiveness

Naveen Salins¹, Mary Ann Muckaden², Jayeeta Chowdhury³ and Jayita Deodhar¹

¹Consultant and Associate Professor, Department of Palliative Medicine, Tata Memorial Centre, Parel, Mumbai, India

²Professor and Head, Department of Palliative Medicine, Tata Memorial Centre, Parel, Mumbai

³Senior Program Officer Head of Department, Tata Memorial Centre, Parel, Mumbai

funds and these discharged patients do not receive any symptom relief during end of life [11].

A study on knowledge of palliative and end of life care among Indian medical, nursing and allied health professionals showed V L J Q L gaps in knowledge. A very small percentage of health care

