

The Great Buddha in Bamiyan, Afghanistan 40th Anniversary of its Stereo-Photogrammetric Documentation

Robert Kostka*, David Braslau, Minneapolis and Walter Kuschel

*Corresponding author: Robert Kostka, Doctoral and Habilitation (Cartography), Technical University of Graz, Austria, Tel: 316-873-6331; Fax: 316-873-6337; E-mail: ruth.hoedl@tugraz.at

Rec date: Feb 12, 2014, Acc date: Mar 14, 2014, Pub date:

For the surface reconstruction, due to the scale and rotation differences among the images, the modified version of the developed MPGC matching algorithm was applied.

3 Styrian State Library, Joanneum Quarter.
4 Kostka

References

1. Amin G, Fabio R, Li Z (2004) Photogrammetric reconstruction of the Great Buddha of Bamiyan, Afghanistan. The Photogrammetric Record 19: 177-190.
2. Green A, Dino RF (2005) The Return of the Buddha - Photogrammetry and cultural heritage in Bamiyan, Afghanistan. Photogrammetry Remote Sensing GeoPart I: 1: 57-68.