

K : Cystic injuries; Cystic cancers; Radiographic elements;
Lower leg

I

Bone growths are moderately uncommon in the foot and lower leg district, and it is assessed that just 3% of rigid growths happen in this region. Bone cancers in the foot and lower leg area usually present as cystic sores on plain radiography. Muscular specialists genuinely must have a essential methodology for managing such injuries and for

-20(o0o)1s. 88(ep)-5[(sy8 5 o)-9(o0o)1s.9(in1(ra)1(o)1. I a)9nuyp0.hcn (no)1istr

